About Me

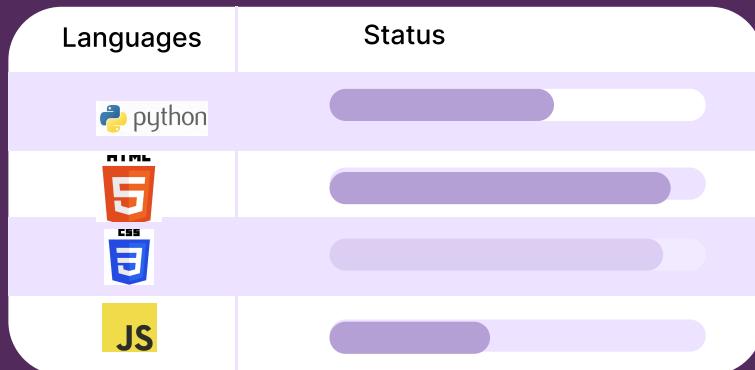

As a student, I am driven by curiosity and a desire to learn continuously, exploring diverse areas of software development, from web applications to system design. My academic environment has provided me with the opportunity to enhance my teamwork and problem-solving skills. I look forward to further honing my abilities and making meaningful contributions to the tech community.

My Coding Journey

My year, coding, has been quite the journey! Currently, the progress I've made so far, learning different languages, can be summarized in the table below:
